KINGTON SHOW – RULES

General Rules

1. Accidents. In the event of any accident, the Society should be informed immediately by contacting a steward or show secretary. The Chief Safety Steward will be responsible for investigating the accident and taking any necessary action.
2. First Aid is available throughout the day, situated next to the Secretary's marquee.
3. Dogs must be kept on a lead at all times and are not allowed in the following areas; livestock pens, horse lines, collecting rings or the dining area of the Members' Marquee.
4. All entries must be on the ground by 9:00am - remain at their station until called for by the stewards, return thereto as soon as they have been judged, and not leave the ground until 4:00pm except in case of illness when a certificate from the veterinary surgeons must be lodged with the secretary or one of the stewards.
5. No straw is to be brought onto the Show Ground. Straw will be provided on site. This is to avoid Black Grass contamination.
6. Please ensure that your animal/s have sufficient water for the duration of the day. (Water is available at a number of sites throughout the showground).
7. No animal must be brought to the show if suffering from any infectious or contagious disease: and if one should be brought the whole responsibility shall rest on the owner of such animal, and no claim shall be made against the society for damage caused by such animals.
8. Veterinary surgeons and a farrier are also available throughout the day. See the secretary, who will contact them for you via radio.
9. Transport Safety. The showground operates a 5mph maximum speed limit. If reversing, a signalman must be positioned to the rear of the vehicle. Audible or visual reversing alarms should also be fitted. Always ensure that when unloading takes place members of the public are kept well clear of the area. Loads must be secured at all times.
10. Exhibitor tickets are available for the day of the show. These tickets are not transferable and will be forfeited if lent to anyone under any pretext what-so-ever. These tickets will be sent with instructions before the show opens. To prevent confusion on the show day, subscribers and exhibitors are requested to communicate with the secretary at least 7 days before the show in case their tickets are not in order, as no adjustment can be made on the day, and no one will be allowed to enter the show without a ticket.
11. The judges shall be empowered to withhold any prize in the absence of merit. No third prize will be awarded in any class where there are less than five entries.
12. Disqualification. In case of any prize animal being disqualified, the winner of the next succeeding prize in that class shall take the prize that has been awarded to such disqualified animal, and the lowest prize in the class shall go the reserve number. Should the reserve number succeed to a prize and be itself disqualified, the prize will be forfeited.
13. In the event of the owner or the person in charge of an animal, disputing or refusing the award of the judges, the prize awarded will be forfeited. The decision of the judges shall be final. With regard to an animal, any exhibit or any event.
14. The society shall not be responsible for the incorrectness of any entry.
15. The committee shall have the power to exclude any unruly or vicious animal from the showground.
All prize-winners in the livestock and horse sections to parade in the Main Ring when called upon to do so by the stewards.
16. All livestock exhibited must be the bona-fide property of the exhibitor for 2 months immediately prior to the show.
17. All pig classes will be run under the BPA Rules.
